Boost your interpreting skills while you gain real-world experience with our free, self-paced and self-directed learning program.

Acorn provides newly qualified interpreters with free professional, rich, and diverse learning opportunities by providing eLearnings, small group skills sessions, reflective practice, and BSL/English video resources. We provide a holistic approach to foster the growth of newer interpreters preparing you for community, educational, VRS and VRI interpreting work.

What to expect:

Webinars on the interpreting process and linguistic features of signed and spoken languages

A greater sense of community through programme connections

Support for infusing foundational skills into practical experience

Virtual gathering and panel discussions for participating interpreters from around the UK
