Koru UK provides 2 years qualified interpreters with paid, professional, rich, and diverse learning opportunities through eLearnings, webinars, mentoring, small group reflective practice, and a BSL/English video library. We provide a complete guided training package for interpreters interested in working specifically in the video remote interpreting (VRI) and video relay service (VRS) settings.

What to expect:

Webinars on the interpreting process and linguistic features of signed and spoken languages

A greater sense of community through programme connections

Support for transitioning from community and/or educational work to VRI and VRS work

Virtual gatherings and panel discussions for participants from all around the UK
