We have an exciting offer for a free webinar series just for you while you study!

Synergy UK provides trainee interpreters with free professional, rich and diverse learning opportunities through participation in small group skills sessions, to discuss the work of interpreting prior to qualification. We provide a holistic approach for interpreting students through access to our pool of resources to prepare them for community, educational, and interpreting over video.

What to expect:

Webinars for students on the interpreting process and linguistic features of signed and spoken languages

A greater sense of community through programme connections

Support for infusing the VRS specialty into the course of study

Virtual gatherings and panel discussions for participating students from different training programmes
